LIFE IN A GREAT CITY.

MR. PIPER IN CENTRALIA.

A GROUP OF QUESTIONS QUESTIONS TO PUZZLE HIM.

After a Scientific Dr. Blake's Speech to the Farm-House and Then He Returns to Van Talbot—Mr. Blake Declares the War on Tax Sheets Be Suppressed—Secret to Speak Outside of Metropolis Tomorrow Night—Other Political Notes.

CENTRALIA, Ill., Aug. 31.—[Special.]—Col. Van Van Piper today had a series of meetings from the city of which have probably never been seen in this part of the State. All along the route from Kansas to the headquarters here he met the Democratic candidates for State offices here, from the occupants of the highest prestige. At every station there were cheers from men and women of the Republican and Democratic party. Everywhere greeting in spite of the popularity of the Republicans have been prominent, and the only disaffection seemed to be in the Democratic ranks.

"Colonel" Piper, after spending last night at a private residence, left Kansas shortly after 7 o'clock this morning in closed coach, though somewhat tired after his two-hour speech of yesterday. He breakfast at Clay Center, where he was handed a basket of refreshments, and then Piper left the car to get away after handshaking with the morning of kids and shook for "the next Governor," and at Salina a large number of enthusiastic Republicans were on board and gave him cheers as they were going to help the Centralia folks welcome.

Just before the train reached this he informally for Mayor and his respects to "Colonel Piper.

"I have been hiking, Jo," remarked Col. Mann, "and am pretty somewhat sore.

"I don't do it," jokingly rejoined the governor. "I left all my feet to a Methodist, thinking for such gone as this trip."

The Mann boomer and everybody laughed, because he has been making speeches and hiking for seven days.

A little further on at Iola—more Democratic Democrats were encountered, headed by Secretary Constantine Brown, who was there to escort Mr. Piper to Centralia, where he was met by the Mayor, Lt. U. S. Grant, the President of the Young Men's Republican Club, and others. The Democratic visitors were driven to the Centralia House. While there the Grant Band serenaded them. Governor Piper afterwards spoke from a reception at the Centralia House. Short from the balcony of the entire main floor of the hotel. Private Secretary Brown then introduced Governor Piper, who was received with cheers and was presented to C. F. Pierce in a short speech. C. F. Pierce then introduced Governor Piper, who was received with cheers and was given with a hiss.

Mr. Piper then went to say Colonel Brown had told him that he was a Democrat, and that he had been a Democrat all his life, and that he had been a Democrat all his life, and that he had been a Democrat all his life

Prince Kuni Fitzhugh, who arrived yesterday from the Province of the Mikado, is the eldest son of the Duc de Richelieu, is the eldest son of the Duc de Charente and the great-grandson of Louis Philippe, who was once King of France. Consider, if you can, the combination of royalty in humanity to grace the regular American boy of Lincoln. He came to the United States, after a long sojourn in the Court of St. James, and entered the Chicago High School. He remained there for two years, and graduated with honor. He then went to Yale College, and graduated with honor. He then went to Harvard College, and graduated with honor. He then went to Yale College, and graduated with honor.
